

importing commodities such as sugar to meet the shortage in domestic supply. Indian exporters have benefited from exporting their products to Pakistan. There is a growing demand for Indian products in Pakistan. Pakistan has benefited from importing raw materials such as chemicals, pharmaceuticals, dyes, iron ore, etc. and capital goods including machinery.

There is scope for increase in India's trade with Pakistan which has the advantage of low transportation cost because of geographical contiguity, similar consumer choice and taste etc. Both India and Pakistan are members of the South Asia Association for Regional Co-operation (SAARC) and have exchanged tariff concessions under SAARC Preferential Trading Arrangements (SAPTA). India has accorded Most Favoured Nation (MFN) status to Pakistan. Pakistan has, however, not accorded MFN Status to India so far.
